

Pleasant Valley Weekly

But as for me, I will come into Your house in the multitude of Your mercy; In fear of You I will worship toward Your holy temple. (Psalm 47 : 6–7)

Vol. 2

November 30, 2014

Issue 47

The people answered, “Amen, Amen!”

What an excellent Gospel Meeting we just had with our Brother Joe Glatz. This morning I want to look back through his lessons on the Just Shall Live by Faith.

We will look at them through the eyes of the assembly during the time of Nehemiah. What happened when Ezra read the word of God? What was the response, and what did the people do?

“The people answered, ‘Amen, Amen!’”

When we consider the lessons from our meeting: “The Fear of the Lord”, “Daniel as a young man,” “Daniel as an older man,” “A Look at Peter,” “Our Three Roles as Christians,” and “Let Us Examine Ourselves,” can we walk away and say “Amen!”?

‘Amen’ simply means we agree, let it be established, let his words be our words. Do you believe that the Just Shall Live by Faith? Do you believe without Faith it is impossible to please Him? (Hebrews 11 : 6) If so, then shout “let it be established.” If not, what was not said over the three days that cause you to still rely on yourself?

As we review today the six lessons and critical points that Bro. Joe gave us, let us say in our hearts—Amen! But more importantly, act.

The people answered, “Amen, Amen!”

* The Just Shall Live by Faith (Bro. Joe Glatz)

* The Fear of the Lord

Proverbs 31—a chapter on Action

Trustworthiness, Work, Perceiving,
Generosity, Preparedness, and Watching

* Daniel as a younger...as an older man.

God is His judge.

Daniel purposed to serve God, he continued in that purpose and he prospered because of his purpose

* A Look at Peter

A man of great faith and a great fall

Because of pride, shame, and denial Peter fell.
Because of repentance Peter rose.

* Our Three Roles as Christians

Soldier, Servant, Herold

Put on your armor, Follow Christ, and
Proclaim the good news

* Let Us Examine Ourselves

If we do not examine, then we lie about where we are.

All of Pleasant Valley said “Amen!”